

Lloyd Arneach Quotes

“Everyone LOVED Lloyd! He was so kind and accommodating. His programs were the great combination of entertainment and education, and his workshop delivered exactly what was advertised. I will be very proud to include him in the video kiosk we are planning for our future update to our American Indian Gallery.”

Kim Shehan, Univ of IL, Urbana, Spurlock Museum

“Mr. Arneach was FABULOUS! We loved having him. We loved his manner, his stories, his wit and most importantly, the disarming, sometimes objective and sometimes subjective way in which he dispelled stereotypes about Native Americans. We all stood a little taller and deeply respectful by the time he came to the end of his presentation.”

Scherry Fouke, All Saints Episcopal Church, TN

“A wonderful and rewarding experience...riveting storyteller, enthralling program, captivating stories...the strength of this performance was Lloyd’s ability to share not only his personal background and stories about his people’s rich history and heritage, but also his gift of narrating various stories about the triumph of the human spirit that all people could relate to.”

Onslow County Public Library, NC

“I would highly recommend Mr. Arneach. He made the Native American stories we read in our picture books and textbooks come alive. It was a pleasure to hear him tell stories and share his knowledge of Native American life...he conveyed his love of storytelling--the art that it is, and rich history it provides--a connection to our past and to the future.”

Kerrie Goray, The Franciscan School, Raleigh, NC

“As a person, as a storyteller, I would recommend Lloyd Arneach to anyone who wishes to understand the human condition better and who would, as a result of hearing him, be lifted to a higher human level.”

Lee Pennington, Artistic Director, Corn Island Storytelling Festival, Louisville, KY

“The program was wonderful. Lloyd is so interesting; to hear his stories are captivating, funny, and very touching. We laughed, we cried, and we wanted more. We all enjoyed the presentation very much. I had 95 people in attendance which is a very high attendance for us. We usually run 50-65 for a concert. All the folks kept telling me what a great time they had as they left the auditorium. Thanks for your assistance in getting Lloyd here--I hope to have him back to Haywood County very, very soon.”

Kay S. Miller, Executive Director, Haywood County Arts Council, Waynesville, NC

“Excellent! ... excellent voice, very detailed, interesting stories, a good sense of humor, interesting ‘apparel’ (vocabulary word!) ... like the flute ... stories were easy to understand and suitable for all ages.”

Linda Wolf, Charlotte Country Day School, NC

“Lloyd was one of the finest storytellers I’d seen in 5 years! ... he was down-to-earth and was able to grab the audience’s attention at once and retain that - he was funny and fascinating - several children came up to him after the program and said “I liked your stories.”
