Description:

For K-12th Grades and Family Audiences

A performance has been scheduled, but the actor fails to show. Or does he? What will happen when a lone spectator finds himself unwittingly on stage? Doug is transformed into several characters ranging from a gorilla to a ballerina as he explores the props and masks on stage. Audience members experience a variety of theatre forms: mime, mask theater, circus arts, and storytelling.

Description:

Doug Berky uses classic styles of storytelling from many cultures including masks, mime, puppetry and the power of a good story to introduce this collection of wisdom stories from around the world. All people seek to understand the world, to live in peace, to deal justly with one another. These stories of hope, peace, freedom and justice will inspire while introducing students to literature from other cultures including Greece, India, Native America, and tales from Europe and South America. Doug has three versions of this production for the different age groups including a preschool version to help introduce young audiences to masks and stories.

Arts-in-Education Curriculum Areas: World cultures and traditions; folklore, literature, visual arts, physical fitness, communication.
