Description:

For 3rd-12th Grades

This non-stop percussive dance review carries student audiences into the wide world of percussive dance. Peppered with stories, history, and facts about the forms presented, the performance includes pieces ranging historically and geographically from traditional rhythm tap, South African Gumboot, French Canadian Waltz Clog, Irish Step Dance, a Tribute to Vaudeville throwing in a few unique twists from NC Youth Tap Ensemble including body percussion, pencil drumming and even Taiko drumming! Students will be learning about dance from professional level dancers from 8 years to 18 years. An extensive study guide accompanies each educational concert of this production.
